

Wedding Style

Unique gowns, dazzling jewelry, vibrant flowers—every bride wants to sparkle on her big day! And if you’re planning a wedding in the Brandywine Valley, local style-makers can help. Jewelers, boutiques, florists and more add their own flair to wedding style.

Delaware Breast Cancer Coalition

Some “Champaign Sparkle” for the bride at her rehearsal dinner or perhaps honeymoon cocktails. Sue Wong Nocturne dress with floral beaded appliqué, size 8, $69. Available at Great Stuff Savvy Resale, gently repurposed clothing and accessories generating revenue for the Delaware Breast Cancer Coalition.

Christophers Chocolates

Personalize your wedding guest favors with Christopher’s decadent chocolates. Or pick from candy buffets, trays of chocolates, truffles and chocolate covered pretzels to add that sweet touch to your special day!

Walter J. Cook

For over 75 years, Walter J. Cook Jeweler has worked with couples styling wedding jewelry for their big event. Meet with Michael Cook to design your one-of-a-kind, custom diamond wedding bands. The bridal collection features several designers with exquisite diamond rings in a variety of styles in platinum and 18 karat gold—all produced in the USA.

Mostardi Nursery

Love is in the air this spring season! Delicate air plants floating in hand-crafted birch-bark covered hearts add a beautiful touch to an outdoor or rustic wedding.

Matlack Florist

It’s the extra details that can make a backyard wedding special. A fully-flowered heart-shaped wreath hanging on a lamppost adds that special touch, and provides a great photo-op!
