Outdoor Dining in Towns & Burroughs

KENNETT SQUARE

Thanks to Historic Kennett Square's "Kennett Blooms" initiative, Kennett Square will be in full bloom this summer with extensive plantings and fun placemaking projects. The town's award-winning boutiques, cafes and restaurants are safely open for business with options for every comfort level. Enjoy sidewalk dining on State Street, rooftop concerts on top of the parking garage brought to you by The Kennett Flash, live music and craft beer at Kennett Brewing Company, ice cream from Kennett's own Michoacana Homemade Ice Cream, and the outdoor beer garden vibe on Birch Street at Braeloch Brewing and the newly reopened Creamery. HistoricKennettSquare.com.

MEDIA

State and Olive Streets in downtown Media will be closed every Wednesday evening and the Second Saturday through September to allow restaurants to offer a socially distanced outdoor dining experience. First seatings begin at 5:30 p.m. and although not required, reservations are encouraged. Face coverings are required for guests until seated. Many of Media's wonderfully eclectic, independently owned retail shops remain open during outdoor dining hours. All of Media's businesses are working hard to keep their customers safe by adhering to CDC protocols and PA Health Department guidelines. VisitMediaPA.com.

PHOENIXVILLE

Come out to Phoenixville on the 100 and 200 blocks of Bridge Street from 2 p.m. Friday through 7 a.m. Monday, where businesses will set up in the closed sidewalk and roadway for the following hours: weekends: Fri., 4 to 11; Sat.-Sun., 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. Open through November 29, with hours closing one hour earlier after Labor Day. The Main and Bridge Street parking lot will also be closed for the duration of the road closure.

WEST CHESTER

Gay Street Open-Air Market will return this summer! West Chester is excited to see you and will have plenty of outdoor dining and shopping options. While you're there, make sure to check out all the fun throughout West Chester's vibrant downtown. In addition to street parking, there are over 1,400 parking spots available in the parking garages and lots surrounding the downtown. For more info on parking visit DowntownWestChester.com.
